- Panel Discussions
- Workshop Facilitations
- Breakout Sessions

Are you ready to place your life on the fast-track to personal and professional growth? Precious Price is a captivating speaker who focuses on developing her audience from the inside-out. As a young woman who, in the past, has struggled with taking control of her attitude and restoring her perspective, she's dedicated her life to pouring into young students and professionals surrounding the importance of gaining control of your mental strength. With more than 5 years of speaking experience in both collegiate and conference settings, she has delivered inspirational messages and workshops to first-year students, young women in business, and corporate professionals alike. It is through her continued transparency regarding her successes, and most importantly her failures, that she is able to deliver messages which resonate the mind and allow the audience to walk away yearning to PUSH their personal and professional life in the direction they desire.

Testimonials

"Precious Price is dynamic, motivational and inspiring. Over the last four years I have solicited her to serve on panels for recruitment events, workshops geared towards college students, and as a keynote for graduation and award ceremonies in front of audiences of 25 to over 150 high school students, college students, parents, administrators, and professionals. She has moved audiences to cry, laugh and feel motivated to conquer their own personal and professional struggles. She met all my expectations and I will definitely be using her services again!"

- Brittani Wilson, Kelley School of Business

"Precious truly has a gift of public speaking, I am looking forward to more of her content."

- Clive Nyawo, Direct Line Group

"Precious has truly made an impact on my perspective. She is an incredible writer and extremely talented in many ways. Thank you, Precious, for being influential and empowering minorities on a daily basis!"

- Sandra Chavez, University of Florida
